

AN ALTAR OF REMEMBRANCE

Words & Music Gary Sadler & Stuart Townend

♩ = 76

1. An altar of remembrance
is what I bring to You;
an overflow of thankfulness
for all you've brought me through.
The power of Your love for me
in famine and in feast;
unnumbered blessings poured on me,
the greatest to the least.

2. An altar of remembrance
I'm building every day;
each act of Your unfailing grace,
each answer to my when I pray.
So faithful to this faithless one,
so patient with my pride;
complete in me what You've begun -
a portrait of the Christ.

Take my life and let it be consecrated, Lord, to Thee.

*My ev'ry thought, my ev'ry deed:
an offering to You.*

3. An altar of remembrance
that stands for years to come;
when I am called to heaven's rest my story lingers on.
Let those who follow in the way
take courage in the race;
You fashioned from this jar of clay
a trophy of Your grace.
