Words & Music Stuart Townend

(You are my everything)

♩ = 80

INTRODUCTION

1. Lord, how majestic You are,
my eyes meet Your gaze
and my burden is lifted.
Your word is a lamp to my feet,
Your hand swift to bless
and Your banner a shield.

VERSE

*You are my everything,
You who made earth and sky and sea,
all that You've placed inside of me
calls out Your name.
To You I bow,
the King who commands my every breath,
the Man who has conquered sin and death,
my Lord and my King,
my everything!*

CHORUS

2. Lord, how resplendent You are,
when I think of Your heavens,
the work of Your fingers –
what is man, that You are mindful of him?
Yet You've crowned him with glory
and caused him to reign!
